

Announcement of Legal Execution Department
On Performing Duty with Good Faith, Honesty, Equity and Transparency

LED is a government agency which carries out government policy for the purpose of reducing social inequality, increasing country's economic latency, administrating public service with good governance and preventing and suppressing corruption in public sector, by performing duty with Good Faith, Honesty, Equity and Transparency, in the vision " Professional execution of judgment based on justice, international standards, and stability. " as well as developing the value of moral, ethic and pride of government officials, honesty and administration of the public sector efficiently to prevent and suppress corruption and misconduct of the officials in all level. The LED is willing to service and render justice to public equally and intends to

1. Administrate work with transparency under the principle of good governance with fairness and ethics.
2. Have all officials willingly and fully performs his duty, conforming to regulations, responsibilities and his roles.
3. Strive to conduct duty conforming to the standard or procedure of services with fairness. Do not practice discriminately when getting offer for any benefit or interest.
4. Not tolerate corruption behaviour or any corruption which cause the social punishment, resulting in the deterrence of corruption behaviour of officials of the LED.
5. Administrate work under the principle of good governance and unite to establish the moral culture in the organization and will administrate the expenditure worthily and with transparency, to maximize the interest of the government. The LED is willing to take responsibility when the work resulting in damaging the public.

In case of sighting the officials or anyone involving in the corruption, please inform to the persons following (everyday, 24 hours)

Director-General of Legal Execution Department, Tel. 0 2881 4800, Fax 0 2433 6011

e-mail: ruenvade.s@led.mail.go.th

Ethics Protection section, Tel. 0 2881 4808, Fax 0 2881 9430

Or via website <http://www.led.go.th>

The LED strives for the development of accessibility of the public to the service and transparency of the operation of the organization.

Please be informed accordingly

Announced on 23 January 2017

Ruenwadee Suwanmongkol

Director General